Dagmar Dangerfield is in love with a monkey maiden. The scenes show the courtship in the jungle. Dangerfield holds a mortgage on the maid's house and will foreclose unless she consents to marry him. She is, however, in love with another. The Father urges her to marry Dangerfield but she elopes with Snooky. He buys a ring, gets a taxi, goes to the parsonage and they are married. Later scenes shows Snooky at the head of a family. A French maid watches the child. Dangerfield is revengeful and plots to steal the child, which he accomplishes through the maid's carelessness and during her flirtation with a cop. She appeals to the police to find the child. Dangerfield places the child in a deserted hut and sets it afire, but the child is rescued in time and there is a happy ending.
